

AUSTRALIAN COMPETITION
& CONSUMER COMMISSION

International
Competition
Network

MERGER WORKSHOP

MELBOURNE • AUSTRALIA • 2020

Thursday 27 February—Friday 28 February 2020
Sofitel Melbourne on Collins, Melbourne

Speakers

Biographies for speakers

(where provided, alphabetical order)

Ms Melanie Aitken

Co-Head of Competition, Antitrust & Foreign Investment, Bennett Jones, NGA

Melanie Aitken is presently co-Chair of the Competition, Antitrust and Foreign Investment practice at Bennett Jones, working out of Washington DC and Toronto. She was the Commissioner of Competition at the Canadian Competition Bureau from 2009-2012; and the senior deputy in charge of Merger review from 2007-2009.

Ms Kala Anandarajah

Head, Competition & Antitrust and Trade, Rajah & Tann, NGA

Kala Anandarajah, a Singapore NGA, heads the Competition & Antitrust and Trade Practice and leads the Corporate Governance Practice at Rajah & Tann Asia. Always a forerunner in niche areas of the law, her key area of practice is Competition and Trade, areas which she has been involved in from inception. She advises multinational corporations as well local companies across the region and has had many firsts in her career, handling difficult and complex matters, demystifying and simplifying issues to achieve the clients' aim. Anandarajah was in 2014 awarded the Public Service Medal (Pingat Bakti Masyarakat) which is conferred by the President of Singapore.

Ms Cristiane Landerdahl de Albuquerque

Head of Merger and Antitrust Unit, Brazilian Competition Authority (CADE)

Cristiane is the Head of the Merger and Antitrust Unit for Regulated Markets at CADE's General Superintendence since 2012. She has worked continuously at CADE since 2009 in different positions. Previously, she also worked with electricity and at Secretariat for Economic Monitoring (SEAE). She holds a Bachelor's degree with a double major in Economics and Government & Politics from the University of Maryland and a Master's degree in Economics from the Federal University of Santa Catarina.

Mr David Anderson

Managing Partner—Brussels, Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner (BCLP), NGA

Dave is a partner in Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner's Antitrust & Competition Law team and is the Managing Partner of the firm's Brussels office. He is a US/UK/Belgian national, qualified to practice in the US, Belgium, Ireland and the UK. Dave has practiced in the international competition law field for over 20 years and focuses on EU and international aspects of mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, restrictive practices, cartels and abuses of dominant positions. Dave has served as an ICN non-governmental adviser (NGA) since the ICN's founding in 2001 and is an NGA to the European Commission working primarily within the Merger and Cartel Working Groups.

Mr Remzi Özge Aritürk

Head of Supervision and Enforcement Department-V, Turkish Competition Authority

Remzi is currently Head of Supervision and Enforcement Department-V at Turkish Competition Authority (TCA). He served as assistant expert at TCA from 2005 to 2008, as expert from 2008 to 2013 and as senior expert from 2015 to 2018. Remzi had his undergraduate degree in Business Administration (BSBA) in Ankara University and his graduate degree in MPA concentrated in Energy and Environment in Columbia University. He also had an annual training regarding Regulation of Energy Utilities in European University Institute. He has published on antitrust and regulatory issues in Turkey. Currently he is leading a sector inquiry in electricity markets and Merger Control Review Group at TCA and performing studies on behavioral antitrust, antitrust in zero-price economies, coordinated effects in merger control and individual sanctions in antitrust enforcement.

Mr Ibrahim Bah

Director, Competition Enforcement and Mergers Division, Competition and Consumer Protection Commission Ireland (CCPC),

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/ibrahim-bah-5b7048107>

Mr Alexander Baker

Managing Director, Fingleton, NGA

At Fingleton, Alexander has advised on complex merger reviews, including the main retail and tech mergers in the UK, and has helped clients successfully navigate market studies and regulatory investigations in a variety of jurisdictions.

www.linkedin.com/in/alexander-j-baker

Mr Joel Bamford

Senior Director, Mergers, United Kingdom Competition and Markets Authority

Joel Bamford is Senior Director of Mergers at the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA), where he leads the CMA's mergers team on both cases, international engagement and policy initiatives. Joel is an experienced competition economist with an MA in Economics and Mathematics from the University of Edinburgh.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/joel-bamford-76593656/>

Mr Tzahi (Isaac) Berkovich

Team Leader, Markets Department, Israel Competition Authority

Adv. Tzahi Berkovich is the head of ICA's Mergers Team, in charge of all legal aspects regarding M&A's, and a Team Leader in ICA's Markets Division.

Ms Morag Bond

General Manager, Digital Platform Inquiry, Australian Competition and Consumer Commission

Morag Bond is the joint General Manager of the Digital Platforms Branch at the ACCC (job-share with Kate Reader). Morag was previously a director in the Merger Investigations branch of the ACCC for six years.

<https://au.linkedin.com/in/morag-bond-57953411>

Mr Francisco Borquez

Senior Associate, Barros & Errázuriz, NGA

Francisco Borquez Electorat is a Senior Associate at Barros & Errazuriz Abogados (Santiago, Chile). Francisco holds a law degree at Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and an LL.M. degree at University College London (FCO Chevening Scholarship). Prior to his private practice, Mr. Bórquez worked for the Fiscalía Nacional Económica and was a trainee at DG Competition, Cartels Unit, Brussels.

<https://cl.linkedin.com/in/francisco-b%C3%B3rquez-electorat-90354a4b>

Mr Gerardo Calderón

Senior Associate, Baker & McKenzie, NGA

www.linkedin.com/in/calderongerardo

Mr Josep Carpi Badia

Head of Unit, Mergers, European Commission DG Competition

Since September 2015, Josep Carpi is Head of the Mergers Case Support and Policy unit in the European Commission's DG Competition

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/josep-m-carpi-badia-130163161>

Mr Étienne Chantrel

Head of the Mergers Unit, French Competition Authority (Autorité de la concurrence)

Étienne Chantrel heads the mergers unit at the Autorité de la concurrence. He previously worked as an economist in the French Ministry for the Economy and Finance from 2008 to 2014 and from 2016 to 2017, holding various positions at the French Treasury where he was in charge of the economic analysis of sectoral reforms, and of the macroeconomic impact of economic policy, and at the French statistical institute, where he was in charge of Eurozone economic forecasts. He was an adviser to the Minister for the Economy from 2014 to 2016, in charge of competition and structural reforms. As such he designed a major structural reform law known as the "Macron" law, enacted in 2015.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/%C3%A9tienne-chantrel-1a89a87/>

Mr Andy Chen

Former Commissioner for the Taiwan Fair Trade Commission and Dean and Professor of Law at the Chung Yuan Christian University in Taiwan, NGA

Andy is currently Dean and Professor of the School of Law at Chung Yuan Christian University in Taiwan. He served as Commissioner of the Taiwan Fair Trade Commission (TFTC) from 2007 to 2010. Andy earned his law degrees from National Taiwan University (LL.B.), Soochow University (Taiwan, LL.M.), Duke University (LL.M.) and Northwestern University (Doctor of Juridical Science). He has published extensively on antitrust and regulatory issues in Chinese and English, mainly from the perspective of economic analysis.

Ms In Seon Choi

Partner, Kim & Chang, NGA

Ms In Seon Choi is a Kim & Chang attorney who practices primarily in the areas of antitrust & competition, technology, media & telecommunications ("TMT"), and health. She has extensive experience in representing multinational and domestic companies on various antitrust issues, such as abuse of market dominant position, merger, cartel, and unfair exercise of intellectual property.

<https://kr.linkedin.com/in/in-seon-choi-87199aa7>

Mr Alípio Codinha

Deputy Director, Mergers, Portuguese Competition Authority (AdC)

Alípio Codinha is the Deputy Director of Mergers Department of the Portuguese Competition Authority since 2015. He joined the Competition Authority in 2004. Before that he was a regulation expert at the Portuguese telecommunications and water and waste services regulators and lecturer of microeconomics and industrial organization at Universidade Autónoma and Instituto Superior Técnico.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/alipiocodinha/>

Ms Maria Coppola

Counsel for International Antitrust, United States Federal Trade Commission

Maria Coppola is counsel for international antitrust at the U.S. Federal Trade Commission. She is responsible for the agency's enforcement and policy work with Europe. She is an adjunct professor at George Mason University Law School.

Mr Michael Corrigan

Partner, Clayton Utz, NGA

Mr Corrigan is a partner in the competition law team at Clayton Utz lawyers in Sydney. Mr Corrigan practices in merger control, cartel and immunity matters and general advice on competition and consumer law issues. He has considerable experience in considering online competition in numerous mergers and other matters in sectors such as wagering, travel bookings, general retail, liquor retailing, media and advertising.

Mr Juan Cristobal Gumucio

Partner, Cariola Díez Pérez-Cotapos, NGA

Juan Cristobal Gumucio is partner and Head of the Competition Law practice at Cariola Diez Perez-Cotapos, one of the largest full-service law firms in Chile. Juan Cristobal is a Chilean qualified lawyer with a master's degree in law (MJur) at Oxford University. With over 25 years of experience, his main fields of practice have been Intellectual Property Law and Competition Law, where he has advised in a wide array of different matters, like cartel and abuse of dominance cases, restrictive practices, compliance and several high profile merger control cases from different industries, i.e. airlines, fuels, media & entertainment, industrial gases, dairy products, insurance, eyeglasses, siderurgy, etc.

Ms Jacqueline Downes

Partner, Allens, NGA

Jacqueline Downes leads the national Competition, Consumer & Regulatory group at Allens. Jacqueline is well known for obtaining competition clearance of high profile and complex mergers, both domestic and international. She also has extensive experience in competition and consumer law investigations. Jacqueline is Deputy Chair of the Competition and Consumer Law Committee of the Law Council of Australia.

Mr François Dumonteil

Director (Trustee Services), AdVolis, NGA

François Dumonteil is NGA for the Competition Authority of New Caledonia. François is the director in charge of the Trustee assignments in the Paris office of Advolis. He has experience both with the EC and the French Competition Authority, regarding structural as well as behavioural commitments, acquired in a variety of merger and antitrust cases. Before joining Advolis, François practiced as a lawyer specialized in antitrust and merger cases for more than 10 years in Paris and Brussels. He was involved in major merger cases (Pernod Ricard/Allied Domecq, SNCF/Eurostar, etc.) and antitrust cases (Groupement des Cartes Bancaires, Clearstream, etc.).

Honourable Ray Finkelstein AO QC Australia

NGA

Ray Finkelstein graduated in law in 1970 and was admitted to practice in 1971. Between 1971 and 1975 he worked in Melbourne as a solicitor and also as a tutor at Monash University. He was called to the Bar in 1975, specialising in equity, commercial and corporate law. He was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1986. Thereafter he concentrated on appellate work often acting for State and Federal Governments and their instrumentalities. He was acting Solicitor General for the State of Victoria during 1992. He was appointed a judge of the Federal Court in 1997 and held additional appointments as Deputy President of the Australian Competition Tribunal and the Copyright Tribunal of Australia. In December 2008 he was appointed President of the Australian Competition Tribunal. He retired as a judge of the Federal Court and President of the Competition Tribunal on 30 June 2011 and has returned to private practice at the Victorian Bar. In 2011 he was appointed Adjunct Professor in the Law Faculty at Monash University. During 2011/2012 at the appointment of the Commonwealth Government he was Chair of the Independent Inquiry into Aspects of the Media. In 2012 he was appointed to Governance Advisory Panel, Chartered Secretaries Australia Limited.

Ms Melissa Fisher

Deputy Commissioner, Mergers Directorate, Competition Bureau Canada

Melissa Fisher is the Deputy Commissioner of the Mergers Directorate at the Canadian Competition Bureau. In this role Melissa is responsible for leading the Mergers Directorate including overseeing and making recommendations to the Commissioner of Competition and the Senior Deputy Commissioner on all merger related matters. In addition to being regularly involved in the review of very complex mergers, she has also led a number of significant policy initiatives, including the Directorate's substantive and procedural guidelines related to merger review and remedies, and collaborates often with foreign competition authorities. Prior to joining the Canadian Competition Bureau in 2009, Melissa worked in private practice.

Mr Mory Fodé Fofana

Competition Law Officer, Mergers Directorate, Competition Bureau Canada

Mory Fodé Fofana is a Competition Law Officer in the Mergers Directorate of the Competition Bureau of Canada. Since 2005, he has reviewed, as primary officer and team lead, numerous mergers, including domestic and international transactions, in various industry sectors. Mr. Fofana has also served as senior analyst in competition policies at the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission. Mr. Fofana's educational background includes economics, computer science and public administration.

Ms Aura María García Pabón

Advisor to the Superintendent, Superintendence of Industry and Commerce Colombia

Ms. Aura Garcia is an Economic Advisor to the Superintendent of Industry and Commerce in Colombia. She also works as a professor in microeconomics and competition law at Javeriana and Externado universities. She holds a MSc. in Economics, competition and regulation from Tilburg University.

Mr Adrien Giraud

Partner, Latham & Watkins, NGA

Adrien Giraud is a partner in Latham & Watkins' Brussels and Paris offices. He specializes in French and European competition law and has significant experience in merger control, behavioral antitrust matters (including damages claims), and state aid.

Ms Eleni Gouliou

Director, Mergers, United Kingdom Competition and Markets Authority

Eleni Gouliou is Director of Mergers at the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) handling Phase 1 and Phase 2 mergers. She was previously at the European Commission in DG Competition dealing first with telecoms and media mergers and subsequently with antitrust in the telecoms sector, most notably network sharing. She has been involved in many complex mergers, including mobile telecoms mergers. Prior to the Commission, Eleni worked at Ofcom and as a competition lawyer in private practice and at the BBC.

Mr Ben Hamlin

Deputy General Counsel, New Zealand Commerce Commission

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/ben-hamlin-a48aa321/>

Ms Kaoru Harada

Senior Officer, Mergers and Acquisitions Division, Japan Fair Trade Commission

Kaoru HARADA is managing case teams on mainly chemical and machine industries at the M&A Division of the Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC). She is also a member of JFTC's Merger Working Group Co-Chair team for the International Competition Network (ICN). She graduated Keio University (Bachelor of Laws) in 1999. In the US, she earned LL.M. degree in Georgetown University Law Center in 2004 and passed the Bar Exam in New York in 2005. She is a co-author of practical handbook of Japanese competition law (Shuichi SUGAHISA (Ed.), Takeshi SHINAGAWA, Daisuke KORENAGA & Kaoru HARADA, "Antimonopoly Law (3rd Edition)" (Shojihomu, 2018)).

Ms Belinda Harvey

Partner, Norton Rose Fulbright, NGA

Belinda is a competition/antitrust Partner based in Sydney, with 15 years of specialist experience both at the ACCC and in advising corporate clients in Australia and globally. Belinda's has a broad competition/antitrust practice with a particular focus on advising on, and obtaining clearance for, domestic, cross-border and multi-jurisdictional mergers.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/belinda-harvey-0875b219/>

Ms Leonie Hass

Case handler, Mergers, European Commission, DG Competition

Leonie Hass is a case handler at the European Commission (DG Competition). She currently works in the merger unit investigating transactions in the information, communication and media sectors. She previously worked for an economic consultancy advising on various competition matters. She graduated in Economics from University of Cologne and University of Münster.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/leonie-hass-bb48ba128/>

Ms Toshiko Igarashi

Senior Officer, Mergers and Acquisitions Division, Japan Fair Trade Commission

Ms. Toshiko Igarashi is the Senior Officer for Mergers and Acquisitions at the Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC) since June 2016. She is managing case teams for merger review in various retail and service industries at the Mergers and Acquisitions Division. She is also the head of JFTC's Merger Working Group (MWG) Co-Chair team of the International Competition Network (ICN) since 2017 and has lead several MWG projects as the Co-Chair. Prior to the appointment to her current position, she worked as the Senior Planning Officer for International Affairs, focusing on the JFTC's international cooperation at the ICN, the OECD, APEC and UNCTAD.

Dr Helen Knudsen

Economist, United States Department of Justice

Helen Knudsen is a staff economist at the US Department of Justice Antitrust Division. During her 11 years at the Division, she has worked on dozens of merger and conduct investigations across a wide range of industries. Her focus in recent years has been on health care markets.

Mr Jonas Koponen

Partner, Linklaters LLP, NGA

Jonas Koponen is an international competition lawyer and partner of Linklaters LLP, based in Brussels. He has been a non-governmental adviser with respect to the ICN since 2003. Among other projects, Jonas contributed to the Recommended Practices on Remedies, the Merger Remedies Guide, and the MWG Workshops in Brno, Brussels and Tokyo.

Dr Katharina Krauss

Head of 7th Decision Division, Bundeskartellamt, Germany

Dr Katharina Krauss joined the Bundeskartellamt in 1999 and is now head of the 7th Decision Division. The activities of the 7th Decision Division of the Bundeskartellamt focus on the areas of telecommunications, broadcast engineering, electrical engineering, press, radio, press-related advertising and outdoor advertising.

Mrs Francisca Levin

Head of the Mergers Division, Chilean Competition Agency (Fiscalía Nacional Económica, FNE)

Francisca is the Head of the Mergers Division since 2019. She is a lawyer from the P. Universidad Católica of Chile, and holds an LL.M in Competition Law from King's College London (2013) and a MSc in Regulation from the London School of Economics (2014). She previously worked as a senior associate in the competition law practice at Carey, and also as a case handler in the Mergers and Enforcement Division of the FNE.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/francisca-levin-visic-49428b57/>

Dr Anita Lukaschek

Special Advisor, Baker & McKenzie—Vienna, NGA

Anita Lukaschek joined the Vienna office of Baker & McKenzie in 2015, where she works as special advisor in competition law matters. Anita Lukaschek advises on all aspects of Austrian and EU competition law. She focuses her practice on merger control, restrictive practices, competition litigation, internal investigations, dawn raid support, and compliance issues.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/anita-lukaschek-81563a5/>

Mr Richard May

Principal Investigator, New Zealand Commerce Commission

Richard leads a team of mergers investigators at the Commerce Commission. His background is in economics and he also has competition and merger experience from the UK from his time with the Competition and Markets Authority and in economics consultancy.

Mr Raphael Mburu

Manager, Mergers and Acquisitions, Competition Authority of Kenya

Mr Mburu is the manager in charge of mergers and Acquisitions at the Competition Authority of Kenya. He possess advanced skills in Competition Law dealing with regulation of market structure and conduct. This has been through establishing and developing broad knowledge in analysis of complex mergers and acquisitions, carrying out market inquiries and sector studies, investigation of policies, procedures and programmes of regulatory authorities to assess their effect on competition and consumer welfare and advising Government on competition matters.

Mr Michael Moiseyev

Assistant Director, Mergers, Bureau of Competition, United States Federal Trade Commission

Michael Moiseyev is an Assistant Director in the Bureau of Competition at the Federal Trade Commission and supervises the Bureau's Mergers I Division. He joined the Commission in 1989 and has been Assistant Director since 2003. The Mergers I division is responsible for reviewing mergers in the pharmaceutical, medical device, and consumer healthcare products and services industries, as well as a number of other sectors, such as internet, advertising, defense and scientific products. In addition to supervising investigations in the Mergers I division, Mr. Moiseyev leads the division's interaction with foreign competition authorities, and works on a wide range of competition policy issues, and frequently lectures on antitrust topics.

Mrs Maayan Mor

Advocate, Markets Division, Israel Competition Authority

Maayan Mor is an attorney at the ICA's Markets Division and the Block Exemptions Team. Mrs Mor has a vast experience in evaluating mergers and in actively promoting competition through various tools at the disposal of the ICA. Mrs Mor is also involved in high-profile cases regarding abuse of dominant position.

Mr Giorgio Motta

Partner, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, NGA

Giorgio Motta is an antitrust partner of Skadden Arps in Brussels. Giorgio advises clients on the antitrust aspects of mergers, acquisitions and joint ventures requiring international merger control approvals in Europe and on a worldwide basis. Giorgio is an NGA of the Italian Competition Authority at the ICN, and he has participated in a number of recent ICN events, including the ICN MWG Workshop in New Delhi in 2014, the ICN MWG Workshop in Brussels and the annual ICN conference in Sydney in 2015, and the ICN MWG Workshop in Tokyo in 2018.

Mr Shungo Omiya

Chief Investigator, Mergers and Acquisitions Division, Japan Fair Trade Commission

Shungo Omiya is Chief Investigator of the economist team for Mergers and Acquisitions at the Japan Fair Trade Commission. He is working on economic analysis for several merger cases.

Mr Michele Pacillo

International Affairs Officer, Italian Competition Authority

Mr Michele Pacillo is an official for international affairs at the Italian Competition Authority (AGCM) since 2012. Before joining the AGCM, he worked at the Irish Competition Authority in the merger division and in the policy division. His background studies are in economics.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/michele-pacillo-1591692/>

Dr Andrea Pomana

Attorney, Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, NGA

Dr. Andrea Pomana heads the firm's Antitrust & Competition Group in Germany. She advises clients on complex international, European and German merger control proceedings before the European Commission and the German Federal Cartel Office, and on market dominance, antitrust compliance and foreign investment, with nearly fifteen years of experience in these fields.

<https://www.debevoise.com/andrapomana?tab=biography>

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/dr-andrea-pomana-844a5130/>

Mr Fernando Sánchez Carrillo

Case handler Officer, Mergers, European Commission, DG Competition

Fernando Sanchez has been involved in a large number of high-profile merger cases leading to significant remedies across different industries, including the finance, insurance, pharmaceutical, medical, chemical and energy sectors since he joined the European Commission. He previously worked in development and governance in Nigeria and Peru.

Dr Saurabh

Joint Director (Economics), Competition Commission of India

Dr. Saurabh is Joint Director (Economics) presently posted in Legal Division of Competition Commission of India. Earlier he was with the Combination Division where his role was to assess the proposed combination or merger meeting certain threshold as per the provision of the Competition Act 2002. His areas of expertise are competition law, policy and regulation. He joined Competition Commission of India in February 2014. He has worked in the Investigation Division as well as Economics Division of CCI where he provided important economic analysis in some of the land mark antitrust cases and merger analysis and also assisted in generating Suo Moto cases based on Sectoral Research.

Ms Fiona A. Schaeffer

Partner, Milbank LLP, NGA

Fiona Schaeffer is an international antitrust lawyer with over 20 years of experience practicing on both sides of the Atlantic. Clients entrust Ms. Schaeffer with the defense of “bet-the-company” cross border mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and other combinations.

Mr Jürgen Schindler

Partner Co-Head Antitrust, Allen & Overy, NGA

Jürgen is co-head of A&O's global competition and antitrust group. He has extensive experience advising clients on complex international, EU and German merger control, cartels and abuse of dominance cases. Jürgen's practice encompasses a broad range of sectors, including energy, finance, high technologies, shipping and transport, raw materials, chemicals, consumer, and industrial products. In addition, Jürgen litigates before the European courts in Luxembourg. Earlier in his career he completed an internship with DG Competition and worked as an international fellow at the U.S. Federal Trade Commission. He is admitted to practise in Frankfurt and New York, and is listed as a European lawyer with the Brussels bar.

Mr Tadashi Shiraishi

Professor, University of Tokyo, NGA

Tadashi Shiraishi has published various articles, including those on exploitative abuse, international application, and procedural fairness for imposing fine. They are listed on his website in English.

<http://shiraishitadashi.jp/english/index-e.html>

Ms Shweta Shroff Chopra

Equity Partner, Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co., NGA

Shweta is a senior competition partner at Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co., one of India's leading law firms. She has extensive experience in cross-border and domestic concentrative merger reviews in India (Holcim/Lafarge, GE/Alstom, L&T/Schneider Electric, Vodafone/Idea, Walmart/Flipkart), as well as both minority and controlled private equity acquisitions. Over the years, she has also played a key role in advising on changes to the Competition Commission of India's merger control regime and on the National Competition Policy.

<http://linkedin.com/in/shweta-shroff-chopra-b409391>

Ms Isabelle de Silva

Head, Industry and Energy Unit, Spanish Competition Authority (CNMC)

Isabelle de Silva has been the president of the Autorité de la concurrence since her appointment by the President of the French Republic in October 2016. She previously served as president of the Sixth Chamber of the Conseil d'État, the supreme administrative court, which she had joined in 1994 after graduating from Sorbonne University (1989), HEC Paris business school (1990) and the École Nationale d'Administration (1994). She is an experienced lawyer who held various Government positions. She was a member of the board of the Autorité de la concurrence from 2014 to 2016.

Mr George Siolis

Partner, RBB Economics Australia, NGA

George joined RBB Economics in July 2009 as a Partner in the Melbourne office. He has worked as a micro-economist for 25 years and has advised clients in Australia, Asia and Europe, including the European Commission on a wide range of policy issues. He has specialised in the application of economics to competition and regulatory issues across a range of industries including fast moving consumer goods, transport and coastal shipping, agriculture, manufacturing, telecommunications, and financial services.

Mr Yuji Tanaka

Deputy Director, General Affairs Division, Economic Affairs Bureau, Japan Fair Trade Commission

Mr. Yuji Tanaka, as Deputy Director for Digital Platform Operators, General Affairs Division of Economic Affairs Bureau, is responsible for general coordination among JFTC's various divisions related to dealing with digital economy.

Mr Hideki Utsunomiya

Partner, Mori Hamada & Matsumoto, NGA

Hideki Utsunomiya is a partner at Japanese law firm, Mori Hamada & Matsumoto, where he handles a full range of competition law matters. He has an extensive experience of obtaining merger clearances in large, complex cases, many of which were subject to second phase reviews in and out of Japan.

<https://jp.linkedin.com/in/hideki-utsunomiya-33a50653>

Mr Maurice de Valois Turk

Partner, Oxera Consulting LLP, NGA

Maurice de Valois Turk is a partner with Oxera Consulting LLP. He has advised notifying firms as well as third party interveners in the context of mergers (unilateral, coordinated, vertical or conglomerate effects). In addition, he has extensive experience with remedies, having acted as monitoring trustee on multiple mandates as well as project manager for the creation and implementation of various merger remedies.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/maurice-de-valois-turk-95294a2/>

<https://www.oxera.com/people/maurice-de-valois-turk/>

Ms Elie Yoo

Assistant Director, Mergers, United Kingdom Competition and Markets Authority

Elie Yoo is an Assistant Director in the UK Competition and Markets Authority's Mergers division. Recent case work in 2019 includes Roche/Spark, Illumina/Pacific Biosciences and eBay/Motors. Prior to working at the CMA, Elie was a lawyer (in both London and Brussels) at Slaughter and May and Clifford Chance, where she advised on a number of high profile international mergers

AUSTRALIAN COMPETITION
& CONSUMER COMMISSION

