

Interim Authorisation AA1000645

Report for the period 15 March 2024 to 15 April 2024

1 Background

The ABA refers to its application for authorisation of 30 November 2023 (AA1000654) (the Application).

This report is provided to the ACCC in satisfaction of Condition 1 in the ACCC's decision to grant interim authorisation in relation to the Application, subject to conditions (the Interim Authorisation). This report covers the period from 15 March 2024 to 15 April 2024 (the Relevant Period).

2 Summary of Report

During the Relevant Period, 31 meetings were held between two or more of the Australian Banking Association (ABA), its Member Banks,¹ Linfox Armaguard Pty Ltd (Armaguard) the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA) and the Commonwealth Treasury (together, the Authorised Parties) for the purpose of:

- (a) developing and evaluating potential industry responses to: (i) the viability of wholesale cash distribution in Australia; and/or (ii) securing continued access by banks, retailers, other businesses and/or members of the public to retail cash services in one or more metropolitan and/or regional non-metropolitan locations; and
- (b) reaching in-principle agreement on the form and content of any urgent industry responses to be pursued.

An overview of the meetings and discussions that took place during the Relevant Period pursuant to the Interim Authorisation are set out in Confidential Schedule 2.

Over the Relevant Period the Authorised Parties discussed the following topics:

- developments relevant to the decline in the use of cash as a payment method in Australia and the viability of the cash-in-transit (CIT) industry;
- potential industry-led long term solution to the issues facing wholesale and retail cash distribution in Australia, including the possibility of the establishment of a new model for cash distribution;
- the provision of certain short term financial assistance to Armaguard; and
- business continuity planning in the event of suspension of CIT services.

The Authorised Parties reached in-principle agreement on the form and content of some of the above responses under the Interim Authorisation but have not implemented these responses. In particular, in-principle agreement was reached in relation to:

- a group consisting of Major Banks, Australia Post and major retailers offering to provide certain short term financial assistance to Armaguard; and
- the purpose and aims of the BCP working group, facilitated by the RBA and comprising Major Banks and other Authorised Parties (RBA and Commonwealth Treasury), to enable business continuity planning in the event of a disruption or suspension in Armaguard's CIT services.

Discussions are ongoing to further explore these matters. During the Relevant Period the ABA and its Members have consulted with Australia Post and three other major retailing groups during the Relevant Period.

3 Confidentiality

The ABA regards parts of this report (being Schedule 2 in its entirety) as confidential and requests that those parts not be disclosed to any third party, or displayed on the ACCC's public register without the prior written consent of the ABA. This request is subject to the ACCC's standard terms as to confidentiality set out below:

- there is no restriction on the internal use, including future use, that the ACCC may make of this report, consistent with its statutory functions;
- confidential documents may be disclosed to the ACCC's external advisors and consultants on the condition that each such advisor or consultant will be informed of the obligation to treat the documents as confidential; and
- the ACCC may disclose confidential documents to third parties (in addition to its external advisors and consultants) if compelled by law or in accordance with section 155AAA of the CCA.

Yours sincerely,

Christopher Taylor
