Hi Scott,

Just following up on whether you are able to provide us with a line for the Treasurer to use at the BGF launch event if asked about the ACCC's role in assessing/approving the BGF.

I'm on leave from tomorrow, but [REDACTED] (cc'd) can be contacted about this in my absence.

Thanks

Hi Scott,

It was good to talk to you again the other day.

As discussed, it is likely that there will be a public event to announce the establishment of an Australian BGF on 20 November involving the Treasurer and the CEOs of the participating banks. We've started preparing talking points for the Treasurer as well as some responses to likely questions from journalists. It is possible that the Treasurer could be asked about whether any regulatory approvals are needed. It would be good if we could give the Treasurer a line on the role of the ACCC in this matter.

For more details on the design of the BGF, please find attached the latest draft of the term sheet that Treasury and the participating banks have prepared for the purpose of gaining internal approvals to invest in the BGF.

Once you've had a chance to consider the document, it would be good if you could draft some words that the Treasurer could use at the launch event if asked about the ACCC's role assessing/approving the BGF.

Happy to take a call to discuss.

Thanks
