Dear Mr Cameron

Authorisation AA1000435 submitted by The Recruitment, Consulting & Staffing Association Limited (RCSA) –request for material to be excluded from the public register

I refer to your submission regarding the above application for re-authorisation lodged with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC) on 21 March 2019 and apologise for the delay in providing this response.

I have considered RCSA's request that its Confidential Examples (at section 1.2 b), Attachment E (RCSA Ethics Enquiries 2014-2019) and Attachment G (RCSA's Service Delivery Standard) be excluded from the ACCC's public register.

The ACCC is generally required under section 89 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (the Act) to place documents provided to it in relation to an application for authorisation on its public register. A person submitting a document in relation to an application for authorisation may request that the document, or parts of it, be excluded from the public register due to the nature of certain information it contains.

As a person authorised to make a decision for and on behalf of the ACCC in relation to such a request, I advise that the Confidential Examples, Attachment E and Attachment G will not be placed on the public register.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register.

I note that you also provided a public version of your submission. This version will be placed on the public register in the form it was provided to the ACCC.

Should you have any queries in relation to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Alex Reed on 02 6243 1364.

Yours sincerely

David Jones
