Dear Sir/Madam

Premium Milk Ltd (Premium Milk) - CB1000475 - ACCC does not object

The ACCC has assessed the collective bargaining notification (CB1000475) lodged by Premium Milk on 11 September 2020 and does not object to the notification. Protection from legal action provided by the notification commenced on 25 September 2020.

In addition, the ACCC has decided that it is appropriate for the notification to remain in force for ten years until 10 September 2030. The ACCC's Statement of Reasons is available on the public register.

Application for review

Under section 101A of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, a person dissatisfied with the ACCC's decision in relation to the period of the notification may apply to the Australian Competition Tribunal (the Tribunal) for a review of that decision. An application for review must be made to the Tribunal on or before 2 December 2020. The Tribunal is a separate body from the ACCC and is located within the Federal Court of Australia. For further information about the Tribunal's process please refer to the Tribunal's website at www.competitiontribunal.gov.au.

The ACCC may review a notification at any time if circumstances change, or the ACCC receives further information, such that it is satisfied that the public benefits no longer outweigh the public detriments.

This letter has been placed on the ACCC's public register. If you wish to discuss any aspect of this matter please do not hesitate to contact Annabelle Lyons on (02) 6243 3015 or Tanya Hobbs on 02 6243 1029.

Yours sincerely
