If yes, please provide a detailed description of the extended warranty being offered by Hyundai.	N/A.
If Hyundai is not using this notification, would Hyundai consider withdrawing the notification?	Not at this time. While HMCA is not using it now, the business would not rule out switching on this sort of offer at some point in response to changing market conditions and customer demands.

Please let me know if you require anything further at this stage.

Yours sincerely
